Dear Eric Newman:

It was a pleasure speaking with you yesterday. I hope that we can meet in person sometime soon, perhaps when I pay a visit to St. Louis.

I promised to send you the title of the book that has an updated list of counterfeit detectors. It is David P. Forsyth, The Business Press in America, 1750-1865 (New York: Chilton Books, 1964). The relevant pages are 100-109 and 352-355.

Here is my address: 41 Hawthorn Street, Apt. 6, Cambridge, MA 02138. I will send a long a copy of my dissertation once I get it back from UMI; that should be in the next few months.

Thank you taking the time to chat yesterday, and let's keep in touch. I look forward to reading your book, and do let me know if you hear of a copy of Haxby coming up for sale.

Best Wishes,

Stephen Mihm

Dear Eric Newman:

Phil Lapsansky suggested I contact you; he mentioned that you were interested in talking about counterfeiting.

I'm a great admirer of your work, and while my particular project begins in the post-revolutionary period, I would love to chat about counterfeit money if you have the chance.

Best Wishes,

Stephen Mihm

DEAR ERIC NEWMAN -

Thank you for sending me a copy of "U.S. Coin Scales and Counterfeit Coin Detectors." I enjoyed it very much, and it now has a prominent place on my reference shelf.

I am still awaiting copies of my dissertation, but will send a copy as soon as they arrive. In the meantime, I will keep you apprised of my travel plans in the event I come out to St. Louis to do research.

Again, many thanks, and I hope to speak with you soon.

Sincerely, Stephen Mihm
